BACKGROUND

Satyanraj Ramdoo is a Senior Associate at BLC Robert & Associates in the M&A and Corporate & Commercial practice area. He advises primarily on mergers & acquisitions, corporate restructuring exercises, and business law matters. He also regularly advises on tax, data protection, and regulatory & compliance matters. In addition, he forms part of the intellectual property desk at BLC Robert & Associates and provides support on banking & finance transactions.

Satyan is heavily involved in drafting and reviewing legal documentation within the corporate and commercial sphere. He focuses on breaking down transaction complexity to provide solution-driven advice to clients. Satyan acts for various private local and foreign companies and investors acquiring a stake in or through Mauritian companies.

Satyan recently acted for Vitol & Vivo Energy in their collective acquisition of Engen Limited in South Africa and headed the Mauritian due diligence aspects of the deal. He is currently advising on the integration aspects of that transaction for the Mauritian companies within the acquirer group. Satyan is also currently advising Vivo and IBL on 'E-Motion', a joint-venture project for the development of electric charging stations across Mauritius.

Some of his other recent highlights include advising Berkeley Energy in respect of a restructuring and sale of its geothermal asset in Ethiopia, advising the International Finance Corporation and other investors with respect to their investment in a Mauritian holding company of a DRC-based company providing world-class renewable energy in the DRC, and advising TOTAL S.A.S and TOTAL E&P MOZAMBIQUE AREA 1, LIMITADA on the Mauritian law aspects of the project financing for the establishment of a liquefied natural gas project in Mozambique (known as the Mozambique Area 1 LNG Project).

CLIENT'S FEEDBACK

"Satyan has an exceptional knowledge of Mauritian corporate law and an ability to distill it into clear, user-friendly advice. He is also an excellent project manager, with extensive experience working alongside counsel in multi-jurisdictional transactions."

"Very well structured and articulate. He quickly understands the issue, looks at matters in depth and provides an interesting legal venue."
